§ 405.1054

an attorney, or other legal professional on behalf of a beneficiary or other appellant files the request for withdrawal, the ALJ may presume that the representative has advised the appellant of the consequences of the withdrawal and dismissal.

- (2) Neither the party that requested the hearing nor the party's representative appears at the time and place set for the hearing, if—
- (i) The party was notified before the time set for the hearing that the request for hearing might be dismissed without further notice for failure to appear:
- (ii) The party did not appear at the time and place of hearing and does not contact the ALJ hearing office within 10 calendar days and provide good cause for not appearing; or
- (iii) The ALJ sends a notice to the party asking why the party did not appear; and the party does not respond to the ALJ's notice within 10 calendar days or does not provide good cause for the failure to appear.
- (iv) In determining whether good cause exists under this paragraph (a)(2), the ALJ considers any physical, mental, educational, or linguistic limitations (including any lack of facility with the English language), that the party may have.
- (3) The person or entity requesting a hearing has no right to it under $405.1002.
- (4) The party did not request a hearing within the stated time period and the ALJ has not found good cause for extending the deadline, as provided in §405.1014(c).
- (5) The beneficiary whose claim is being appealed died while the request for hearing is pending and all of the following criteria apply:
- (i) The request for hearing was filed by the beneficiary or the beneficiary's representative, and the beneficiary's representative, and the beneficiary's surviving spouse or estate has no remaining financial interest in the case. In deciding this issue, the ALJ considers if the surviving spouse or estate remains liable for the services that were denied or a Medicare contractor held the beneficiary liable for subsequent similar services under the limitation of liability provisions based on the denial of the services at issue.

- (ii) No other individuals or entities that have a financial interest in the case wish to pursue an appeal under §405.1002.
- (iii) No other individual or entity filed a valid and timely request for an ALJ hearing in accordance to §405.1014.
- (6) The ALJ dismisses a hearing request entirely or refuses to consider any one or more of the issues because a QIC, an ALJ or the MAC has made a previous determination or decision under this subpart about the appellant's rights on the same facts and on the same issue(s) or claim(s), and this previous determination or decision has become binding by either administrative or judicial action.
- (7) The appellant abandons the request for hearing. An ALJ may conclude that an appellant has abandoned a request for hearing when the ALJ hearing office attempts to schedule a hearing and is unable to contact the appellant after making reasonable efforts to do so.
- (b) Notice of dismissal. The ALJ mails a written notice of the dismissal of the hearing request to all parties at their last known address. The notice states that there is a right to request that the MAC vacate the dismissal action.

§ 405.1054 Effect of dismissal of a request for a hearing before an ALJ.

The dismissal of a request for a hearing is binding, unless it is vacated by the MAC under §405.1108(b).

APPLICABILITY OF MEDICARE COVERAGE POLICIES

§ 405.1060 Applicability of national coverage determinations (NCDs).

- (a) General rule. (1) An NCD is a determination by the Secretary of whether a particular item or service is covered nationally under Medicare.
- (2) An NCD does not include a determination of what code, if any, is assigned to a particular item or service covered under Medicare or a determination of the amount of payment made for a particular item or service.

- (3) NCDs are made under section 1862(a)(1) of the Act as well as under other applicable provisions of the Act.
- (4) An NCD is binding on fiscal intermediaries, carriers, QIOs, QICs, ALJs, and the MAC.
- (b) Review by an ALJ. (1) An ALJ may not disregard, set aside, or otherwise review an NCD.
- (2) An ALJ may review the facts of a particular case to determine whether an NCD applies to a specific claim for benefits and, if so, whether the NCD was applied correctly to the claim.
- (c) Review by the MAC. (1) The MAC may not disregard, set aside, or otherwise review an NCD for purposes of a section 1869 claim appeal, except that the DAB may review NCDs as provided under part 426 of this title.
- (2) The MAC may review the facts of a particular case to determine whether an NCD applies to a specific claim for benefits and, if so, whether the NCD was applied correctly to the claim.

[70 FR 11472, Mar. 8, 2005, as amended at 70 FR 37704, June 30, 2005]

§ 405.1062 Applicability of local coverage determinations and other policies not binding on the ALJ and MAC.

- (a) ALJs and the MAC are not bound by LCDs, LMRPs, or CMS program guidance, such as program memoranda and manual instructions, but will give substantial deference to these policies if they are applicable to a particular case.
- (b) If an ALJ or MAC declines to follow a policy in a particular case, the ALJ or MAC decision must explain the reasons why the policy was not followed. An ALJ or MAC decision to disregard such policy applies only to the specific claim being considered and does not have precedential effect.
- (c) An ALJ or MAC may not set aside or review the validity of an LMRP or LCD for purposes of a claim appeal. An ALJ or the DAB may review or set aside an LCD (or any part of an LMRP that constitutes an LCD) in accordance with part 426 of this title.

§ 405.1063 Applicability of laws, regulations and CMS Rulings.

(a) All laws and regulations pertaining to the Medicare and Medicaid programs, including, but not limited to Titles XI, XVIII, and XIX of the Social Security Act and applicable implementing regulations, are binding on ALJs and the MAC.

(b) CMS Rulings are published under the authority of the Administrator, CMS. Consistent with §401.108 of this chapter, rulings are binding on all CMS components, on all HHS components that adjudicate matters under the jurisdiction of CMS, and on the Social Security Administration to the extent that components of the Social Security Administration adjudicate matters under the jurisdiction of CMS.

[74 FR 65336, Dec. 9, 2009]

§ 405.1064 ALJ decisions involving statistical samples.

When an appeal from the QIC involves an overpayment issue and the QIC used a statistical sample in reaching its reconsideration, the ALJ must base his or her decision on a review of the entire statistical sample used by the QIC.

MEDICARE APPEALS COUNCIL REVIEW

§ 405.1100 Medicare Appeals Council review: General.

- (a) The appellant or any other party to the hearing may request that the MAC review an ALJ's decision or dismissal.
- (b) Under circumstances set forth in §§ 405.1104 and 405.1108, the appellant may request that a case be escalated to the MAC for a decision even if the ALJ has not issued a decision or dismissal in his or her case.
- (c) When the MAC reviews an ALJ's decision, it undertakes a de novo review. The MAC issues a final decision or dismissal order or remands a case to the ALJ within 90 calendar days of receipt of the appellant's request for review, unless the 90 calendar day period is extended as provided in this subpart.
- (d) When deciding an appeal that was escalated from the ALJ level to the MAC, the MAC will issue a final decision or dismissal order or remand the case to the ALJ within 180 calendar
